

Bets, Benefit Star at Event

Betting and benefit will prevail Oct. 13 at the "Day at the Races" event of the Little Company of Mary Auxiliary, slated to be held at Hollywood Park at 1 p.m.

A donation of $5 per person will allow those attending admission to the Turf Club, hors d'oeuvres and dancing after the last race. Funds from the event, open to the public, will go towards support of the hospital.

Honorary chairman of the event will be Mrs. John Shidler, known as Rosemary DeCamp to television audiences. Auxiliary chairman of the event is Mrs. Karl Ransom. Her co-chairmen are Mmes. Charles Kirnsis and T. L. Montgomery.

According to Mrs. Clarence Van Lingen, president of the auxiliary, proceeds of the benefit will go towards expansion of the pediatric wing of the hospital.

A window, publicizing the event, was donated by Silverwoods at Del Amo shopping center.

Ticket chairmen are Mmes. Jack Whiting, Ron Picarrillo, Arthur Ford, Theodore McNeer, Frank X. McCormick, Denis Lynch, Richard Blumenthal, Ted Whitting, and John Ahman. Other ticket chairmen are Mmes. Raymond Grimsinger, Lawrence Smith, Askar Askari, L. Keith Packard, Robert Miller, John Hahn and Robert Jenkinson.

MERRY MANNEQUIN and friend ready for Little Company of Mary Auxiliary's bet and benefit "Day at the Races" Oct. 13 at Hollywood Park. Publicizing event in the window of Silverwood's is Mrs. Karl Ransom, a Mannequin-harness race enthusiast. Funds from the event will go toward expansion of the pediatric wing of the hospital. —PRESS Photo

Women

CAROLYN PERKID, Society Editor

TELEPHONE DA 5-1515

Yosemite Honeymoon Follows Pair's Vows

A one-week honeymoon at Yosemite followed the Sept. 22 nuptial vows joining Sondra Hanni to Robert Crosby at the First Christian Church of Torrance, 2930 Eldorado St.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hanni, 1304 Cordary Ave., Torrance. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Crosby, 911 Faysmith Ave., Torrance.

Officiating at the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony was the Rev. H. M. Sippel. The church was decorated with white carnations and persimmon in baskets on each side of the altar. White bows were attached to the pews.

BRIDE'S GOWN

Miss Hanni appeared in the aisle in a gown of white peau de soie with chantilly lace over its skirt. The floor-length gown, made by the bride's mother, had long sleeves and lace appliques on a scalloped v-neckline.

Attendants of the bride were Mrs. Dale Lancaster, matron of honor, and Patsy Cochran, Pam Martz, Mrs. Charles McNeil and Mrs. John Walker, bridesmaids.

BRIDESMAIDS' GOWNS

They wore persimmon dresses with empire waistlines and full skirts. The dresses had bows on the bodices and three-quarter length sleeves. Bride's attendants wore white gloves and carried persimmon carnations with green ribbon.

Bridegroom's attendants were Phil Crosby, best man, and Dale Lancaster, Neil Field, Tim Hanni and Bill Crosby, ushers.

FLOWER GIRL

Flower girl Karla Staff joined the wedding party in a white, nylon organdy gown with puff sleeves and a white hat made of nylon tulle. She was escorted by Steven Pierce, ring bearer.

Wedding music performed before the 200 guests included "We Thank Thee Lord."

"You'll Never Walk Alone" and "Wedding Prayer."

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony at the church. Attending the guest book was Beverly Staff. Friends and relatives then attended a party at the bride's home.

MOTHERS

At the nuptial event, Mrs. Hanni wore an aqua sheath of peau de soie and bridegroom's mother wore a beige brocade sheath.

The newlyweds, who now reside in Palm Springs, are both graduates of Torrance High School. Crosby, also a graduate of Cal Poly in Pomona, is employed with the United States department of agriculture. The bride attended El Camino College.

MRS. ROBERT CROSBY ... nee Sondra Hanni —Photo by Seeman

South Bay Sons Lodge Holds Event

A Columbus Day dinner-dance to benefit the City of Hope will be sponsored by the 17 Southern California lodges of the Order of the Sons of Italy in America, according to Peter J. De Santis, president. Slated for Saturday, it is under the local auspices of the South Bay Lodge, headed by Venerable Phil La Loggia.

Nearly 1000 are expected at the gala event at the Mayflower Ballroom in Inglewood. The United Lodges of Southern California is a fraternal society representing thousands of Americans of Italian extraction in the Southland.

Proceeds from the evening will help further the free, nonsectarian Medical Center's pilot research and patient care program in the war against catastrophic diseases.

Further information may be obtained in this area from La Loggia, FR 4-0960.

Daughters Plan 'Time for Fun'

Plans for a "Time Out for Fun" party were put before members of Court Our Lady of Victory, Catholic Daughters of America, at the September business meeting.

Mrs. Stacy Rodman, party chairman of the ways and means event, invited members and guests to enjoy the indoor-outdoor, swim, barbecue, dance facilities of the Adli Swim School Oct. 13.

During the meeting Mrs. Richard Wurm Jr., grand regent, announced Mrs. Gust Sundquist of Court Our Lady of the Sacred Heart was the new state-appointed district deputy.

DUTIES

During her two-year appointment she will assist Court Our Lady of Providence in Hawthorne and Court Isabella in San Pedro. Her duties will include supervising ritual work presented during formal officer installations and new member receptions.

Members of the organization attended a reception for new members of Court Our Lady of the Island, Avalon, Sept. 3 at Catalina Island.

Featured at the event, a joint Catholic Daughters-Knights of Columbus "Day on Catalina Island," was a barbecue luncheon, a visit to bird park, a trip on the glass bottom boat, motor tours and a return moonlight cruise.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

During committee reports, Mrs. Carmel Clune, world missions chairman, told of the success of World Missions Night. As a result of the timely talk and film of Columban Fathers Hugh Byrne and John Daly and Mrs. Marie Flynn, state chairman of world missions, the court has decided to form a mission circle to assist.

The membership voted to donate $100 to the annual benefit fund of Camp Teresa Pines Summer Camp for girls at Wrightwood; to continue the traditional contribution to the Archbishop's Annual Christmas Party; and to help defray costs of the Catholic information booth at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona.

GOOD OF ORDER

Fr. J. Augustine O'Gorman, court chaplain, in his monthly talk for "the good of the order," chose to outline the purposes of the Eucumenical Council.

Mrs. Frank Ives, secretary, invited board members to conduct the October meeting at her home. She will be assisted by Mrs. Laura Duport.

MRS. LARRY EUGENE HAGEN ... the former Susan Kay Lamping —Photo by Seeman

Nuptial Event Joins Couple at Ceremony

The Neighborhood Church of Palos Verdes Estates was the scene of the 4 p.m. nuptial ceremony Sept. 15 joining Susan Kay Lamping to Larry Eugene Hagen.

The bride, given away in marriage by her step-father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ritchie, 4037 Via Valmonte, Palos Verdes Estates. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hagen, 11 Outrider Road, Rolling Hills Estates.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony before 300 guests was Dr. Ronald Hargis. The church was decorated in white flowers and ferns.

AT ALTAR

Miss Lamping appeared at the altar in a gown of nylon organza. The gown's neckline had appliques of white chantilly lace embroidered with sequins and tiny seed pearls. A chapel train was attached to the gown. The bride carried a cascade of white stephanotis.

Maid of honor, dressed in a pink chiffon over peau de soie gown and carrying a French line of pink carnations, was Roberta Lamping, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids, dressed like the maid of honor, were Dana Wilson, Cheryl Davis, Lynn Freund and Sandra Schroeter.

FLOWER GIRLS

Flower girls were Karen and Kathryn Johnson, cousins of the bride. They wore pink organza dresses and carried pink and white baskets of flowers.

Best man at the nuptial event was Barry Leisure. Ushers were Ronald Sims, Larry Stearns, John Toomey and Robert Sponheim.

A reception was held for the newlyweds immediately after the ceremony at the church. At the guest book was Dorothy Fisher.

MOTHERS

Bride's mother, who wore an oyster white brocade dress, and bridegroom's mother, who wore an aqua brocade dress, carried white orchids on their purses.

The bride is a 1962 graduate of Palos Verdes High School, Hagen, who attended Narbonne High School, is manager of Norms Landing in San Pedro.

Club Announces Term's Chairmen

Federation and standing committee chairmen were ratified at the September executive board meeting of the Torrance Woman's Club, Marina District 18, CFWC. Mrs. Joseph P. Bay, president, held the meeting at her home, 14 Coach Rd., Rolling Hills. Preceding the meeting, dessert and coffee were served.

Federation chairmen are as follows: amenities and hospitality, Mrs. John P. Schwartz; American citizenship, Mrs. L. W. Ballard; Bible and spiritual values, Mrs. W. C. Moyer; drama, Mrs. J. G. Laird; education and youth conservation, Mrs. D. L. Sears; federation extension secretary, Mrs. Alma C. Smith; gardens and city beautiful, Mrs. Roy J. Apsey; historian, Mrs. John Thuss.

Others were homecrafts, Mrs. Leondrus Stamps; international hostess projects and affairs, Mrs. Donald P. Le Galley; literature, Mrs. Godfrey Nelson; parliamentary law, Mrs. D. J. Thomson; press book Mrs. Apsey; publications, Mrs. Rufus Sandstrom; safety, Mrs. Russell M. Clawson; scholarships, Mrs. R. E. Moffitt; junior advisors, Mrs. B. W. Roberts and Mrs. Joseph P. Bay.

STANDING

Standing committees and chairmen are as follows: decorations, Mrs. H. E. Barbey, chairman, Mrs. F. M. Shaw, co-chairman; hospi-

DIANE HUNTER ... receives flight wings

Flight Wings Awarded Torrance High Graduate

Flight duty in Los Angeles is the first assignment of Diane Hunter, 21, who was recently awarded the silver wings of a jet age stewardess for American Airlines.

Miss Hunter, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hunter, 2806 Onrado St., Torrance. She was graduated from the airline's stewardess college at Fort Worth, Tex., after a course including 100 different subjects relating to aviation and the stewardess profession. Courses included familiarization of the airline's 707 astrojets.

The new stewardess, a 1959 Torrance High School graduate, attend El Camino College and was a member of Gamma Phi Delta sorority and a song leader while there.

Auxiliary Women Slate Luncheon

The first meeting of the new club year for the women's auxiliary to the South Bay Pharmaceutical association will be held at the Pen and Quill Restaurant, Mark Twain Room, in Manhattan Beach Oct. 11 at noon. Luncheon hostess will be Mrs. Ralph A. Rector.

Mrs. Robert A. Sherrill, president, will conduct the business meeting. Officers reporting will be Mmes. Charles Bogolea, first vice president; Clarence E. Brauer, second vice president; D. N. Engelbert, secretary and Ralph A. Rector, treasurer.

Subjects brought before the auxiliary will be the pharmacy scholarship fund, the women's auxiliary state president's visit and the Annual Shamrock Ball dinner dance.

Members planning to attend are Mmes. C. P. Abler, P. S. Aspen, Bogolea, Brauer, Sam Caramelli, D. E. Cottrell, Jack Dean, D. D. Demarest, Harold Drevno, Engelbert, J. H. Fenske, E. R. Fietz, David Forsyth, Morris A. Hooper, Jr., D. N. Ingle, J. K. Wamada, E. J. Lalonde, Stanley Lieber, Rector, F. C. Reese, Sherrill, Lee Solomon and F. E. Spillman.

HAPPY HOMES

There are 3.3 persons in the average owner-occupied home in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area, according to the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce.

Flower Messages Theme of Event

The Greenthumbers Garden Club, affiliated with the California Garden Clubs, Inc., held its annual fall flower show entitled "messages in flowers" Sept. 21 at the home of Mrs. William Abblett, 5732 Clearite St., Torrance.

Winners of sweepstakes trophies were Mrs. Louis Wilhelm in floral design, Mrs. Vincent Patten in potted plants, and Mrs. Elmer Junge in specimens.

Special awards in floral design were received by Mrs. Louis Wilhelm for her dried arrangement, Mrs. Vincent Patten for her oriental arrangement, and Mrs. William Abblett for her arrangement featuring warm

Camp Fire Guardian Receives Medallion

A Torrance woman was among 17 Camp Fire Girl guardians in the nation to be awarded Silver Medallions this year for outstanding leadership and girl participation, according to Mrs. Norman Leonard, president of the Los Angeles Area council.

Mrs. James A. Davis, 2452 W. 227th St., received her award at the leaders' association meeting Sept. 20 at Waleria Park in Torrance.

Mrs. Davis enlisted her group's mothers for an outstanding extension program for Blue Birds in the Torrance area, and she was praised for the constructive use of program resources and cooperative relationships with the council and the community. Mrs. Davis has been a Blue Bird leader for three years and a group sponsor for one year.

Mrs. Joe Goren, San Pedro woman also honored, was commended by the national organization for the wide range of service activities engaged in by her girls. These included overseas aid, a get-out-the-vote campaign, and Christmas caroling. Mrs. Goren received a "Shuta" award from the national organization last year for excellence. She has been a guardian for more than four years.